Definitions:

Academic Integrity: Being responsible, honest and trustworthy in your endeavours as a student.

Plagiarism: When an individual takes someone else's thoughts, writing or concepts and uses them as their own. This could include music, sounds, images etc which may be found in print or electronic media.

Collusion: When a student submits group work as their own independent work. Students should not allow their work to be copied or sold.

Consequences of Plagiarism and Collusion

You will be disqualified from the competition for plagiarism or collusion.

Late Submission

No entries will be accepted after the closing date.

Note

- If submitting by email, a scanned, signed version of this form must be attached to your email submission.
- If submitting by post, an original copy of this form must be included, along with your entry on CD or DVD.

- I declare that all material is my own work except where there is clear acknowledgement and reference to the work of others.
- I give permission for my work to be reproduced and submitted to ASNSW for publication in their journal and to be copied, submitted and retained in a form suitable for electronic checking for plagiarism if so required.
